Dear participants of the Industry Meeting,

We would like to point out that films will be made and photographs taken during the event.

With your participation, VDMA receives the right, without special remuneration, to create photographs in connection with this event and use or allow the use of these recordings in audiovisual media (e.g. VDMA internet, social media, Twitter, Facebook) and in print media (e.g. VDMA News). The photographs will be used on social media (VDMA pages on Twitter and Facebook) during the event, exclusively for reporting purposes and documentation of the event; there will be no further processing of the images. We shall store the data for as long as it is needed for the purposes related to our processing.

Further information on your individual rights and general information on our handling of your personal data is available at www.vdma.org/datenschutz.
