

Terms and Conditions – OE-A Web-Seminars

1-Purpose

OE-A expands its services by offering an online 'Printed Electronics Insights' Web-Seminar series, in order to keep our member companies and interested parties up to date on the latest flexible and printed electronics developments from any place they are based.

2-Registration procedure

Registration is possible via VDMA website. Registrants will receive an automated e-mail confirmation of web-seminar registration upon signing in. Please note, that this e-mail confirmation will not provide the link to join the web-seminar. All registrants will receive a second e-mail confirmation one day prior to the web-seminar including a second registration link to confirm participation with our external service provider GoToWebinar to set-up the web-seminar. Only after completing your information there, your registration process is completed, and you will receive a unique link to join the web-seminar (please do not share this link with others).

When registering for the web-seminar consent is given to process your personal data in connection with the provision of this service. OE-A will use your information to provide access to the web-seminar you registered for, as well as to communicate with you about the web-seminar via e-mail. Furthermore, OE-A will save and use your personal data to invite you to upcoming web-seminars and OE-A meetings. You may withdraw the consent granted either fully or partially at any time with future effect by sending an e-mail to daria.firlus@oe-a.org.

3-Web-seminar participation

Registration for the web-seminar is limited to 1.000 participants. Registrations will be accepted on a "first come, first served" basis. OE-A reserves the right to limit participation to two attendants per company.

3-Payment

Web-seminar participation is free of charge, no registration fee applies. This applies to OE-A members as well as non-members.

4-Cancellation

Registration for the web-seminar may be cancelled at any time prior to the web-seminar by sending an e-mail to daria.firlus@oe-a.org. If for any reason, the web-seminar is required to be cancelled by OE-A, a notification e-mail will be sent as soon as possible.

5-Web-seminar language

The web-seminar language is English, no translation will be provided.

6-Recording

OE-A intends to record the web-seminar including audio and any documents and other materials exchanged or viewed during the web-seminar in order to make it available exclusively to OE-A members for later retrieval. Furthermore, the web-seminar will be recorded for internal quality assurance purposes and will be saved by OE-A for documentation purposes.

7-Intellectual Property

The content presented in the web-seminar may be owned by either OE-A or other parties. Web-seminar recordings are to be provided to OE-A members for later retrieval only; the content must under no circumstances be recorded or reproduced by third parties. Any breach of copyright, including recording the presentation or any unauthorized use of the material may lead to legal action.

2-Integration of third-party services

OE-A is using the web conferencing software 'GoToWebinar' to run its web-seminars. 'GoToWebinar' is a service provided by LogMeIn Inc based in the USA. OE-A has no influence on the design, contents and function of those services or the processing of personal data by the provider.

When registering for the web-seminar, data from the registration form (e.g. first name, last name, email address) as well as date and time of registration will be transmitted to LogMeIn, Inc. During the web-seminar itself, data will be collected and transmitted to the service provider, who may also set cookies. Among other things, the IP address is recorded, as well as the provider, the operating system and browser used, language settings, type of device used for the web-seminar and statistical data (e.g. participation status and duration, questions asked, interest in the web-seminar). OE-A is using this data for post-processing of the web-seminar session and to enhance the user experience.

The legal basis for the processing of registrants' personal data is the existence of the user's consent Art. 6 para. 1 a) GDPR when registering via the registration form. The legal basis for the processing of personal data in connection with the web-seminar is Art. 6 para. 1 b) GDPR. The legal basis for the transmission of personal data to the service provider is Art. 6 para. 1 f) GDPR.

For more information on data processing and LogMeIn's privacy policy, please visit www.logmeininc.com/legal/privacy/international.

9-Privacy policy

The general VDMA /OE-A's privacy policy applies. For more information on data processing and VDMA /OE-A's privacy policy as well as responsibilities and your data subject rights, please visit <https://www.vdma.org/en/datenschutz>.

10- VDMA Compliance Program

Compliance rules also apply in the Online Meeting Violations of antitrust law can lead to substantial sanctions against participating companies, employees and associations. In your personal interest and to protect your company and the work of the associations, compliance with antitrust law is therefore of utmost importance. The individual exchange of information between companies in competition is subject to particularly strict antitrust law requirements. According to the VDMA Compliance Program, individual exchange of information with regard to the data listed here is therefore not permitted for individual products or markets. In this respect, the information must relate to the entire company or a broad product range. An exchange of competition-relevant company-specific data beyond this is not possible.
